Tropical, tart and gloriously unruly. A holiday romance with questionable judgment.

Whiskey, Madeira and sherry dressed for a night out.

PINK PONY CLUB 18
Vodka, Gin, Lillet, Olive Brine, Hibiscuss, House Pickles
A briny, floral martini with fabulous delusions of grandeur. Bond would disapprove.

INSANE IN THE MEMBRANE 18
Pisco , Cointreau Noir, Lime, Quince Syrup aka membrillo, Egg White, Pear Bergamont Acid
Silky pisco, dark orange and quince. A little sour, a little sweet, entirely unhinged.

LOW'ISH ALCOHOL

Bittersweet Spanish charm with a gin-fuelled wink. Light on booze, heavy on opinions.

Espresso, vanilla and vodka. Coffee with ambition and absolutely no intention of going home.

RUM SERVICE DENIED 21

CORAVIN

MIGUEL MERINO

This month at Saint Vincent, we're featuring two exceptional Miguel Merino wines on Coravin.

In 1994, Miguel Merino pursued his dreams of a small winery in Briones Rioja Alta.

His philosophy was simple—make a little wine, exceptionally well. Old vines, sustainable farming without herbicides and meticulous hand harvesting put that belief into practice. Elegance before muscle; character before cellar theatrics.

The Blanco pairs Viura with Garnacha Blanca, while La Quinta Cruz gives Mazuelo—usually a supporting player—the spotlight. Small-production Rioja, worth getting acquainted with.

2022 Miguel Merino "La Quinta Cruz" 25 (3oz)

Mazuelo (Carignan) > Rioja DOCa > Rioja Alta > Briones > Spain

Dark cherry, blackberry and violet, with wild herbs and a flicker of spice. Fresh acidity and fine tannins give it energy and a long, savoury finish. The supporting grape has politely stolen the show.

2022 Miguel Merino "Blanco" 21 (3oz)

Viura & Garnacha > Rioja DOCa > Rioja Alta > Briones > Spain

Lemon peel, white peach and delicate flowers, with toasted almond and a creamy texture. Bright acidity and a savoury, saline finish keep everything beautifully in line. Plenty of depth; no need to shout.
